Referee comment on "Modeling of pump performance in a water pumping plant" by Fouad Laajine et al., Drink. Water Eng. Sci. Discuss.,
<https://doi.org/10.5194/dwes-2021-16-RC4>, 2022

The paper presents an interesting case study, unfortunately summarized in a substandard publication without any tangible scientific contribution. Further comments to document this verdict are to be found in the attached file.
