Author comment on "A multi-dimensional dataset of Ordovician to Silurian graptolite specimens for virtual examination, global correlation and shale gas exploration" by Hong-He Xu et al., Earth Syst. Sci. Data Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/essd-2021-280-AC1>, 2021

Thank you for your comments.

The fossil specimen image dataset visualization (FSIDVIS) system is for everyone who needs detailed and scientific information of fossil specimens. We will add more data of fossil specimens to the system.
