Author comment on "GIS dataset: geomorphological record of terrestrial-terminating ice streams, southern sector of the Baltic Ice Stream Complex, last Scandinavian Ice Sheet, Poland" by Izabela Szuman et al., Earth Syst. Sci. Data Discuss., https://doi.org/10.5194/essd-2021-59-AC1, 2021

Dear Editor,

We would like to thank for the opportunity to reply to the reviewers suggestions and comments. We have revised the manuscript taking them into considerations.

The changes include expanding and clarifying contents on the importance of the dataset, methods and applied nomenclature. We have also expanded and clarified the context of the research and improved the presentation of the results in figures.

Thank you for considering publication of the manuscript in the ESSD journal.

Regards,

On behalf of all co-authors,

Izabela Szuman
