This is an excellent dataset and description that will have a high impact in the field. Would the authors consider extending it back to 1990? As they know, this is the first year of UNFCCC reporting, and has an extremely high relevance for tracking both historical policy outcomes and future pledges.