Author comment on "Controls on the grain size distribution of landslides in Taiwan: the influence of drop height, scar depth and bedrock strength" by Odin Marc et al., Earth Surf. Dynam. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/esurf-2021-19-AC2>, 2021

Dear Editors,

Please find attached a detailed response and list of edits made as a result of the comments and suggestions of both referees. We appreciate their constructive reviews and have almost systematically followed their recommendation leading to improved clarity and more in depth discussion.

We hope you will find the manuscript ready for publication in Esurf.

Sincerely,

Odin Marc, Jens Turowski and Patrick Meunier
