In addition to the previous comment on source code availability, we can now confirm that the model code is permanently available online at the KIT institutional webpage of the model <https://ldnc.imk-ifu.kit.edu/download/download.php>, as also indicated in the new manuscript version now.

Requesting the model code generally requires registering. For the editorial check we compiled the access conditions: user: `guest@ldnc-users`; password: `N7axqpMP1A`
