Dear authors,

Many thanks for your prompt reply. Unfortunately, we can not accept that it is necessary to request access to the repository unless you have a good reason for it (usually linked to strict copyright limitations at the institutional or governmental level). Therefore, please, publish the code openly. Also, when posting it, you should not be able to delete it later, as it is necessary to retain it to assure future tracking of the open peer-review and Discussions stage.

Regards,

Dr Juan A Añel
