Dear authors,

It is noticed that you have archived your code on GitHub. However, GitHub is not a suitable repository for long-term archival and publishing alternatives. Also, you have to provide the version number for WRF, WRFDA and LETKF and their licenses. In case of no license, the code belongs to you and can not be used by others.

Therefore, please publish your code in one of the appropriate repositories (e.g., Zenodo) with version numbers and licenses, and reply to this comment as soon as possible with the link to the repository for the code and the corresponding DOI before the Open Discussion ends. Also, you must include in a potential reviewed version of your manuscript the modified 'Code and Data Availability' section and the DOI of the code.
