Referee comment on "RAP-Net: Region Attention Predictive Network for precipitation nowcasting" by Zheng Zhang et al., Geosci. Model Dev. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/gmd-2022-19-RC2>, 2022

The paper describes a RAP-Net network that can be used for radar echo extrapolation. Experiments demonstrate the effectiveness of this method. The authors are suggested to supplement the experimental comparison of high-intensity echoes.
