Referee comment on "Possibilistic response surfaces: incorporating fuzzy thresholds into bottom-up flood vulnerability analysis" by Thibaut Lachaut and Amaury Tilmant, Hydrol. Earth Syst. Sci. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/hess-2020-646-RC3>, 2021

I think the authors have done a good job reducing the scope of this paper, focusing on its main contribution. I have only minor editorial suggestions in the attached manuscript that the authors might consider before publication.
