Community comment on "If a Rainfall-Runoff Model was a Hydrologist" by John Ewen and Greg Martin O'Donnell, Hydrol. Earth Syst. Sci. Discuss.,

HI John and Greg,

Please notice that your reply does not address the majority of my comments. You have chosen to focus on one (small) aspect of my comment and ignore the rest. I acknowledged explicitly in my comment that your model was not intended to be a new model for practical use, yet you reacted my comment as if this was the point and ignored the point I was making (which was stated very clearly). I would appreciate a more sincere attempt to respond to what I wrote.

Thank you,

Grey
