Author comment on "Delineation of discrete conduit networks in karst aquifers via combined analysis of tracer tests and geophysical data" by Jacques Bodin et al., Hydrol. Earth Syst. Sci. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/hess-2021-584-AC1>, 2022

We are very grateful to Junfeng Zhu for twice agreeing to review our work. His fair and constructive comments on a previous version allowed us to make substantial improvements and in particular led to Figures 7 and 9 of the present manuscript, which are much more readable and informative than in the first manuscript. We are pleased that the reviewer is satisfied with our revisions, and we thank him again.
