Referee comment on "History of the Potsdam, Seddin and Niemegek geomagnetic observatories – Part 2: Seddin" by Hans-Joachim Linthe, Hist. Geo Space. Sci. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/hgss-2023-2-RC3>, 2023

General comments

The manuscript is the second part of the series of the work on history German geomagnetic observatories. This part is about Seddin observatory. The title is adequate, the short introduction is adequate, it shows briefly circumstances of the establishment Seddin observatory. The whole article is interesting, well structured and clearly written.
