Referee comment on "101 geodynamic modelling: how to design, interpret, and communicate numerical studies of the solid Earth" by Iris van Zelst et al., Solid Earth Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/se-2021-14-RC2>, 2021

This is a lengthy, but well written and useful manuscript that highlights many aspects of geodynamic modelling. I have a number of minor suggestions to further strengthen the manuscript in the attached pdf.
